I, Janet Corse Tompson of Deerfield County of Rockingham, State of New Hampshire, North America, do testify and say that I was born in Bothwell Shire of Lunseek in the Kingdom of Scotland, A.D. 1745; was married to Hugh Wilson Tompson, farmer of Kirkintilloch in the parish of Colden and Kingdom of Scotland in the year 1760, by James Hamilton then parish Minister of said Bothwell. Then went to live at Kirkintilloch with my husband where I remained about three years, during which time I had two children both males; my first son named Hugh Wilson Tompson, Jr., was born June 3d, A.D. 1761; My second son, named John Corse Tompson was born Dec. 8th, A.D. 1763. Both were christened by said Hamilton. From thence moved to the Gorbals of Glasgow where I remained until the year 1767, during which time I had one daughter named Isabel Hodge Tompson, born Sept. 17th, 1764 and christened by the Minister of said place. My husband Hugh Wilson Tompson left Glasgow in the Kingdom of Scotland for Boston, North America, about the 25th of Dec. 1766, and I, Janet Corse Tompson, his lawful wife, with his three children left Glasgow in said Scotland in quest of my husband (having received two letters from him, the one being in North America) A.D. 1767, 28th day of May. I arrived in Boston, North America, on the 8th day of August, 1767, where I found my husband. We remained in Boston that winter and then moved to the town of Londonderry in the State of New Hampshire, Jan. 1768. We remained in Londonderry until the month of April same year. I then moved to Newburyport, where we remained about eleven years in the occupation of farming, trading, etc., during which time and in said place I had four children by said husband, all of whom died in infancy. From thence we moved to Kingston in the State of New Hampshire, A.D., 1779, where I remained until the 22nd day of June, 1808, during which time my husband and two sons died, and my daughter was married; from thence, I moved to Deerfield in said State where I am living with said daughter in good health and in the 64th year of my age. My first son named Hugh Wilson Tompson, Jr. born as before mentioned died in Kingston, State of New Hampshire, April 10th, 1780, having followed rope making for two or three years, then served the remainder of his time as apprentice to a goldsmith in which occupation he died being in the 19th year of his age, and left no issue, Hugh Wilson Tompson, Senior, my husband as before mentioned died suddenly in Kingston, N.H. Nov. 4th, 1780, having left no will and being in the 49th year of his age, having left one son and one daughter as above named.

My second son born as above mentioned was married to Sally Smith, 1784 by whom he had one daughter who was born Feb. 13th, 1785, and was married Oct. 23d, 1806, to Ebenezer Fifield of Readfield County of Kennebeck Commonwealth of Massachusetts, by whom she had one daughter. My said son died the 9th day of Feb. 1785 in the Isle of St. Anna, West Indies, being about 23 years of age and having followed the sea the most of his time. My only daughter born as above was married in Kingston to Daniel Tilton, farmer of Deerfield, March 1787, by whom she has several children, both male and female. I now live with her, by the name of Janet Corse Tompson, in witness whereof, I hereunto set my hand and seal July 9th, 1808.

Information for Alexander Thomson Wilson 1799--

Memorial for A. Thomson Wilson, eldest lawful son of the Deceased William Thomson Shoemaker in Kirkintilloch and heir male and of Tailzie and provisions served and returned to the deceased Isobel Hodge his grandmother pursue against Agnes, Margaret and May or Marriion Thomson, sisters of the deceased Alexander Thomson Weaver in Kirkintilloch defenders. The Pursuer claims certain lands in the Parish of West Senzie and Shire of Dunbarton as heir male and of Tailzie and provision of the deceased Isobel Hodge and William Thomson Wilson her husband to establish his right he has brought the present action of Declaration. The defenders maintain they have a right as heirs of line of the deceased Alexander Thomson their brother. The rights of both parties are derived from Hugh Wilson Portioner in Kirkintillock and here follows a copy of the Deed of Entail. It goes on to state--It is material to remark that the first subject conveyed by said Deed of Entail over (?) the half Mains Mailing. Holds of the farmty of Cambernauld and the others of the Baillies of Kirkintillock. In virtue of the Precept of Sasine contained in the Deed of Entail Isobel Hodge and William Thomson who had intermarried were infeft in the entailed lands as per instrument of Sasine Dated 19th Nov., 1743, and recorded in the particular register for Dunbarton Shire on 12th December, following, containing all the prohibitory irritate and resolution clauses of the entail. William Thomson assumed the name of Wilson and they possessed the lands by this title till their death. The former dying in 1752 and the latter in 1766. They left three sons,- Hugh, Robert and William--Robert, father of the Defenders, William father of the Pursuer. The eldest son Hugh obtained a charter of Confirmation and precept of Clare Constat from the Bailies of Kirkintillock of Date May 8, 1756, as nearest and lawful heir to his said father and comprehend the entailed lands except the half mains Mailing, to this no title has been made up by Hugh Thomson Wilson nor any of his successors. Hugh afterwards was always called Hugh Thomson Wilson. Through the carelessness or ignorance of those who acted for him made them complete his titles without observing the provisions of the entail. The charter of confirmation must have contained confirmation of the Deed of Entail. Thus Hugh Thomson Wilson held these lands under the entail. He was infeft on this charter and precept on 9th of Nov. 1756, and his instrument of sasine was recorded at Dunbarton, on the 20th of December following. Wm. Thomson appears to have been a minor when the titles of Hugh were so irregularly completed, and was then aged only sixteen years, seven months and ten days. Hugh made various contraventions of the entail. First, he accepted a minute of sale disposing for a certain sum part of these entailed lands and to Wm. Stirling tenant in Sherreocot consisting of tenement of houses and yard and half an acre of Burgh Rood land and the half Main Mailing and on this minute of sale Wm. Stirling obtained of adjudication against him on 31 July, 1767. In terms of the minute of sale and Sterling obtained a charter of adjudication and was infeft thereon. 2ndly, he executed a Trust Disposition in favour of his creditors of date 6 Sept., 1765, and recorded in the Sheriff Books in 5 Nov. (?) 1767. At this time Robert Thomson Maser at Kirkintilloch father of the Defender and known as younger brother of Hugh, brought an action of irritancy and reduction of the Deeds granted by Hugh on the ground of said contraction and praying that they be set aside and parties being heard before Lord Covington and memorials ^(judged) ~~(Lodged?)~~ his lordship of date 7 Dec., 1779, passed this judgment, the Lord ordinary having advised the mutual memorials with the Deed of Disposition or Tailzie finds that the said Hugh Thomson Wilson has by these various acts and Deeds of contravention irritated and forfeited all Rights-Tilles to the said land and they they do now fall to the pursuer as next heir of Tailzie free of and disincumbered of these Deeds and of all debts contracted by the said Hugh Thomson Wilson and that it is competent to the Pursuer to establish his titles to the premises in his person as he may be advised and produce said minute of sale to said Wm. Sterling and proceeding thereon and disposition to said Trustees with proceedings thereon and this account is extracted from the Principal process in the hands of the principal clarks (clerks) of Session. Robert did not, however, make up any titles till his brothers death. A Precept of Clare Constat was then obtained from the Bailes of Kirkintillock as nearest and lawful heir of Hugh Thomson Wilson comprehending both entailed and (unentailed) lands and on this he was infeft 29 March 1791 and the sasine is recorded at Dunbarton April 6 following. Robert possessed on this title till his death on the 28 August 1795. He left a son named Alex. He obtained a Precept of Clare Constat from the Bailies of Kirkintillock on the 26 of Sept., 1795, without mentioning the entail and he was infeft thereon the same day and it was recorded on the 28 of Sept., 1795. Robert Thomson under this improper and imperfect title possessed till his death the lands, etc.- which happened on the 28 Aug. 1795. His son Alexander on the 26 Sept., 1795, obtained on Precept of Clare Constat from the Magistrates of Kirkintillock as heir to his father of the whole lands in his father's sasine, without any reference to the Deed of Entail. On this precept he was infeft the same day and his sasine was recorded at Dunbarton on the 29 of Sept., 1795. He died on the 3 Sept., 1796 in minority. He had never made up any title to the Half Mains Mailing, notwithstanding that William Thomson, Pursuer's father was the heir entitled to succeed the defenders procured from the bailies of Kirkintillock a Precept of Clare Constat in their favour as heir of their deceased brother. William Thomson was then advised to bring out a summons of Declaration against them. The Defense returned for them is that they and their authors has possessed the subject in question as a fee simple for 40 years and of course their title is fortified by the positive Prescription. The case (?) having been debated and before your Lordship was ordered to be stated in memorials. In this state was the case when William Thomson died. The memorialist being eldest lawful son of his father procured himself served heir male and of Tailzie as appears from his service before the Magistrate of Glasgow on the 22 of Feb. 1799 and duly retained, in chancery. The memorialist will not dwell on the various of the entail from 1756, particularly the assumption of the name of Wilson by Hugh Thomson and his successors and the service of Robert Thomson as heirs masules (?) of Hugh Thomson Wilson. In combating the plea of preoccupation rights set forth by the defenders the plea of minority, though his father was upwards of six years by law majority when the first contravention by Hugh Thomson took place and the whole possession of Alexander Thomson was during minority and by the deduction of any of these terms the time would be below 40 years, the decree pronounced by Lord Covington sets the matter at rest.

Glasgow, Dec. 26, 1889.

Went to Kirkintollock this morning and after calling at the Postoffice in that town went direct to James Thomson. From him I got the follows:

I am the son of Alexander Thomson of Kirkintollock, whose father was William Thomson of Kirkintollock.

William Thomson entered a plea in the Court of Sessions at Edinburgh for the possession of an entailed estate, his wife Helen Buchanan also plead her case along with her advocate. Before the case was settled William died, and the property fell to the next male heir which was William's son Alexander Thomson. He came into the possession of the estate when of age, but lived fast and spent his wealth. Sold the estate, but would not tell his children on what conditions or terms, and promised those taking it that he would tell no one. As it was entailed property his right to sell it was questionable.

The sisters of Robert Thomson, Agnes, Margret and Marriion wanted to share the estate but could not, but they got some money which kept them. Did not think they were ever married and don't know where they lived or what became of the money they left.

William Thomson, brother of Hugh, was a Shoemaker and tanned his own leather. Hired a dozen men at a time to work for him. Exported boots and shoes. His son, Alexander, gave five years to his father to learn the trade, then gave it up for weaving. In after years when Alexander had spent his wealth he worked hard as a weaver, as he had a family of ten children.

William Thomson's son, William, died of consumption; never married " " daughter, Jean died. Married John Horn of Kirkintollock and had 3 daughters and 5 sons.

" " son John went to the West Indies with boots and shoes and died of yellow fever. Never married.

William Thomson's daughter Isobel died in Kirkintollock, never married.

" " son James Died young.

" " " Alexander married, lived in Kirkintollock and had ten children, - one James gives me the facts here written.

" " son James, was a soldier at the battle of Waterloo; married and had four children.

Alexander's son James will be 80 years old Jan. 8, 1890.

Lansy Parish was the old parish of Kirkintollock.

Information for Alexander Thomson Wilson 1799 —

Memorial for Thomson Wilson eldest lawful son of the Deceased William Thomson shoemaker in Kirkintilloch and heir male and of Tailzie and provisions served and returned to the deceased Isobel Hodge his grand mother pursue against Agnes Margaret and Mary or Marianne Thomson, sisters of the deceased Alexander Thomson ^{weaver} in Kirkintilloch defenders. The Petitioner claims certain lands in the Parish of West Derry and Shire of Dumbarton as heir male of Tailzie and provisions of the deceased Isobel Hodge and William Thomson Wilson her husband - to establish ^{this} right he has brought the present action of Declaration. The defend-here follows a copy of the Deed of Entail. It goes on to state - It is material to remark that the first subject conveyed by said Deed of Entail over the half Mains Mailing. Holds of the ^{family} of ~~family~~ ^{Barberran} and the others of the Baileis of Kirkintilloch.

In virtue of the Precept of Sasine contained in the Deed of Entail Isobel Hodge and William Thomson who had intermarried were ~~left~~ in the entailed lands as pr instrument of Sasine Dated 19 Nov. 1743 and recorded in the particulars Registers for Dunbartonshire on 12 December following containing all the prohibiting irritate and resolution clauses of the entail. William Thomson assumed the name of Wilson and they possessed the lands by this title till their deaths.
The former dying in 1752 and the latter in 1756. They left three sons - Hugh, Robert and William - Robert father of the Defendants, William father of the Pursuers. The eldest-son Hugh obtained a charter of Confirmation and precept of Sasine from the Baileis of Kirkintilloch of Date May 8 1756 as nearest and lawful heir to his said father and comprehend the entailed lands except the half Mains Mailing, to this no title has been made up by Hugh Thomson Wilson nor any of his successors. Hugh afterwards was always called Hugh Thomson Wilson through the carelessness or ignorance of those who acted for him made them complete his titles without observing the Provisions of the Entail - The Charter of Confirmation must have contained confirmation of the Deed of Entail. Thus Hugh Thomson Wilson held these lands under the entail. He was Infeft on this charter and precept on 9 of Nov. 1756 and his instrument of sasine was recorded at Dunbarton ^{on the 20 of Dec following.} Now Thomson appears to have been a minor when the titles of Hugh were so irregularly completed, and was then aged only sixteen years seven months and ten days. Hugh made various contraventions of the entail which he executed a minute of sale disposition for a certain sum reced- consisting of tenement of houses and yard and an acre of Buryh Road land and the ~~small~~^{half} Mains Mails and on this minute of sale Wm Stirling obtained — of adjudication against him on 31 July 1767. In terms of the minute of sale and Stirling obtained a charter of adjudication and was infeft thereon. 2^{ndly} He executed a Trust Disposition in favour of his creditors of date 6 Sept. 1765 and recorded in the Sheriff Books in 5th Vol(?) 1767. At this Robert Thomson Mason at Kirkintilloch father of the Defender and known as younger brother of Hugh brought a action of irritancy and redaction of the Deeds granted by He on the ground of said contravention and praying that they be aside and parties being heard before Lord Cowington and oner judged lodged his lordship of date 7 Dec. 1779 passed this judgment the Lord ordinary having advised the mutual Memorials w. the Deed of Disposition or Tailzie finds that the said Hugh ^{Thomson} Wilson has by these various acts and Deeds of contravention vitiated forfeited all Rights Titles to the said land and that they do now fall to the pursuer as next heir of Tailzie free of and disincumbered of these deeds and of all debts contracted by the said Hugh Thomson Wilson and that it is competent to the Pursuer to establish his title to the premises in his person as he may be advised and produce a minute of sale to said Wm Stirling and proceeding thereon and exposition to said Trustees with proceedings thereon and this account extracted from the Principal process in the hands of the principal clerks of Sessions. Robert did not however make up any Titles to his brothers death a precept of Clare Constable was then obtained from the Bailes of Kirkintilloch as nearest and lawful heirs of Hugh Thomson Wilson comprehending both entailed and (unentailed) lands and this he was infeft 29 March 1791 and the sasine is recorded at Dunbarton April 6 following. Robert possessed on this till till his death on the 28 August 1795. He left a son named the Robert Thomson under this improper and improper and till his death the lands &c - which happened on the 28 Aug. 1795 His son Alexander on the 26 Sept. 1795 obtained a precept of Clare Constable from the Magistrates of Kirkcubright as heir to his father of the whole lands in his father's seisin without any reference to the Deed of Entail - on this precept he was infeft - the same day and his seisin was recorded at Dumbarton on the 29 of Sept. 1795. He died on the 3 Sept. 1796 in minority He had never made up any title to the Half Mains Mailing notwithstanding that William Thomson Pursuers father was the heir entitled to succeed the defenders procured from the bailies of Kirkcubright a precept of Clare Constable in their favour as heir of their deceased brother. William Thomson was then advised to bring out a summons of Declaration against them. The defence returned for them is that they and their authors ~~authors~~ has possessed the subject in question as a fee simple for 40 years and of course their title is fortified by the positive ~~prescription~~ prescription. The case (i) having been debated before your Lordship was ordered to be stated in Memorials in this state was the case when William Thomson died - the Memorialist being eldest-lawful son of his father procured himself served heir male and of Tailzie as appears from his service before the Magistrates of Glasgow on the 22 of Oct. 1799 and duly ^{retained} ~~regis~~ In Chancery The memorialist will not dwell on the various ~~location~~ ^{location} of the entail from 1756 particularly the assumption of the name of Wilson by Hugh Thomson and his successors and the service of Robert Thomson as heir males(?) of Hugh Thomson Wilson. In combating the plea of prescriptive rights set forth by the defenders nor the plea of minority through his father was upwards of six years by law majority when the first contravention by Hugh Thomson took place and the whole possession of Alexander Thomson was during minority and by the deduction of any of these terms the time would be below 40 years - the

William, 3^d son of William & Isobel Hodge Entered action but died

20 Feb 1797

Went to Kirkintollock this morning and after calling at the Post-Office in that town went direct to James Thomson. From him I got the follow: I am the son of Alexander Thomson of Kirkintollock, whose father was William Thomson of Kirkintollock.

William Thomson entered a plea in the Court of Sessions at Edinburgh for the possession of an entailed estate, his wife Helen Buchanan also plead her case along with her advocate. Before the case was settled William died, and the property fell to the next Male heir which was William's son Alexander Thomson. He came into the possession of the Estate when of age, but lived fast and spent his wealth. Sold the Estate, but would not tell his children on what conditions or terms, and promised those taking it that he would tell no one. As it was entailed property, his right to sell it was questionable.

The sisters of ^{Robert -} William Thomson, ^{Agnes} Margaret and Marriano wanted to share the estate but could not; but they got some money which kept them. Did not think they were ever married and don't know where they lived or what became of their the money they left.

William Thomson, ^{brother of Hugh} was a Shoemaker and tanned his own leather. Hired a dozen men at a time to work for him. ^{Exported boots & shoes.} His son Alexander gave five years to his father to learn the trade then gave it up for weaving. In after years when Alexander had spent his wealth he worked hard as a weaver as he had a family of ten children.

William Thomson's son William died of consumption. Never married.
Daughter Jean died young. Married John of Kirkintilloch and had 2 daughters & 1 son.
John went to the West-Indies with boots & shoes and died of yellow fever. Never married.

" Daughter Isabel died in Kirkintilloch. Never married.

" Son James. Died young.

" Son Alexander married, lived in Kirkintilloch and had two children - one James gives me the facts here written.

" Son James, was a soldier at the battle of Waterloo.
Married and had four children.

Alexander son James will be 80 years old Jan. 8 1890.

Largy Parish was the old parish of Kirkintilloch.
